King Manuel Safe Underhand Attack Against Mr. Bouillon Dietz Tells Story

ANOTHER COWARDLY ATTACK MADE AGAINST MR. BOUILLON

Circular Letter is Being Sent Around Attacking Commissioner of Public Utilities—Several Aldermen Have Seen It and Are Disgusted with Methods Employed—J. McKay Dickson has Letter But He Didn't Care to Have Reporter See It—"These Are the Methods of the Creatures that Crawl," Says Mr. Bouillon. When Told of It.

A circular letter is being distributed throughout the city containing statements directed against City Commissioner Bouillon, and it is understood that a former civic official is at the bottom of it. Some time ago there appeared in the Seattle papers an item stating that an Edmonton official had requested information as to the record in that city of A. V. Bouillon. Mr. Bouillon was made acquainted with the fact through some friends of his in Seattle who wrote to Mayor Lee.

The circular being distributed about Edmonton is said to be a copy of the letter which the inquisitive Edmonton official received, and signed by a man named Boyce, who at the present is private secretary to the Mayor of Seattle. The mayor was Mr. Bouillon's opponent, in the primary elections for the mayorality of that city. Mr. Bouillon was a candidate for the Republican nomination, but as it is said, was defeated by the operation of the machine, which was brought to bear on him. The successful man, who is now mayor of Seattle, has been convicted of slander, that fact being a bad record, and is understood to be extremely undesirable to the people of Seattle, who are now petitioning to have him removed from office.

Mr. Bouillon, when seen this morning, had nothing to say, taking the attitude that such a method of attack belonged to the creatures that crawl.

Some of the aldermen interviewed by the Capital this morning had not seen the circular in question, but admitting having heard about it.

Ald. Hyndman had not seen the circular in question but had been told about it. He considered it a most cowardly method of attack.

Ald. Carney had seen the letter. "I think the contents are more of a compliment to Mr. Bouillon than anything else, when you analyse it," he

HELD CONFERENCE ABOUT RIVER BANK

L. R. Voligny had a conference with Commissioner Bouillon yesterday afternoon in connection with the sliding bank, as a result of orders given by the Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Minister of Public Works.

Communication by Lisbon and the province is severed and the attitude of the people in the country is in doubt. There are rumors of royalist forces moving on the capital and threatening civil war. These cannot be confirmed, but the Loyalists are said to cherish the hope that an uprising in the country districts will restore the monarchy.

At Valencia, Spain, October 6.—Marked uneasiness is felt here over the proclamation of a republic in Portugal. Civil guards paroled the streets today and a strong contingent was held in front of the quarters of the republican club with troops in readiness for any emergency.

Paris, Oct. 6.—Among those reported dead in Lisbon is France Borges, editor of the newspaper Mundo, a notable republican journal. He is said to have been killed at the gateway of the palace.

Public order has been restored at Lisbon and the population are peacefully celebrating President Peixoto de Sousa, this afternoon formally relinquished the reins of government to the provisional president, Theophile Bragas and his associates.

GETS SEVEN YEARS FOR BRUTAL CRIME

John Donell of Bonnie Glen Sentenced by Judge Stewart at Watskiwin.

VICTIM WAS LITTLE GIRL
Mother Fainted Three Times in Witness Box—Worst Crime in History of Province.

(Special to the Capital.)
—Watskiwin, Alta., Oct. 7.—John Donell of Bonnie Glen, was given seven years in prison by Justice Stuart, in the supreme court yesterday afternoon following a conviction on a charge of seduction. The jury was out three hours.

The charge upon which Donell was found guilty took place in a field in Bonnie Glen last June, and his victim was a thirteen-year-old school girl. The mother of the girl fainted three times under cross examination, and the trial was held up a half hour each time.

Crown prosecutor Henswood in his address to the jury, referred to the crime as the most atrocious in the criminal annals of the province.

VIVIAN MET WITH SOME OPPOSITION

English Free-Trader Did Not Have a Very Enthusiastic Meeting in Winnipeg.

ANTI-FREE TRADE SPEECH

But Vivian Could Not Answer as He Had to Catch a Train.

Winnipeg, Oct. 7.—If free trade sentiment is rampant in western Canada, as is claimed by a section of the British Liberal press, there was very little evidence of the fact. In a well advertised meeting in Osborne hall last night, the entire audience, including the caretaker, chairman and principal speaker, Henry Vivian, M. P., consisting of 76 persons. R. McKenzie, secretary of the Graingrowers, occupied the chair.

At the conclusion of Vivian's speech T. R. Deacon rose and declared he would never allow a Canadian gathering to break up without protesting against the advocacy of a free trade policy. He remembered when ruin and disaster were inflicted on Ontario people by the introduction of free trade. His father was ruined by it. It might be best for England, but when in Liverpool he was informed there was fifty thousand tons of shipping swinging at anchor because there was nothing to do, and on the Clyde there were thousands of men idle.

Vivian was unable to answer Deacon as he was obliged to catch the train for Port William where he speaks tomorrow. The meeting was anything but unanimous in favor of free trade, the discussion continuing until midnight, on the streets by small groups.

THE BRITISH HOLIDAY TASK (Punch)

Study of a free-born Briton, who, within the period usually allotted to his holidays, is required, under threat of a penalty of £250, to answer a mass of obscure conundrums relating to land values, in order to facilitate his future taxation.

"OH, THAT WRETCHED BUDGET" IS SIR EDWARD STERN'S VIEW

English Knight Visiting Edmonton on Doesn't Like Lloyd-George's Idea of Land Taxation—Talks on Free Trade and the Lord's Question.

"An Englishman touring in Egypt: said that the Nile was Egypt, and Egypt was the Nile, and likewise it can be said that Canada is the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian Pacific is Canada."

The principal thing which impressed Sir Edward Stern, England, a visitor to Edmonton, was the great system of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and he expressed his opinion to the Capital this morning as above.

Sir Edward considers that the C.P.R. made Canada by bringing civilization into an unknown wilderness. Sir Edward, who is accompanied by Lady Stern, is making a pleasure tour of western Canada for the first time, and is greatly delighted with what he has seen. They are guests at the King Edward hotel.

In an interview with the Capital, Sir Edward touched on several matters engaging public attention at present, among them being the tariff controversy. In regard to the situation in Canada, Sir Edward said that to establish free trade here or reciprocity would be ruinous and utterly foolish.

"Why, if Canada was to open her door, she would be overrun in about two weeks," said Sir Edward.

"How is the tariff reform movement progressing in the old country?" Sir Edward was asked. It is only a matter of time when the free trade policy will be abandoned.

TO OPEN THE NEW POST OFFICE BY THE FIRST OF NEXT MONTH?

It is quite expected now that the new post office will be occupied by November first, according to a statement made to the Capital this morning by Inspector Cairns. The elevator in the building and a few other minor details are being completed now, and will be finished in a short time.

In regard to the possibility of one of the new stamp vending machines,

THEY ALL PAID

About forty frantic Edmonton citizens, crowded into the electric light office yesterday to liquidate long overdue accounts, as the result of the decision of the city authorities to cut off the services of those whose accounts were outstanding. It was just before the closing hour when the invasion commenced and long after the closing hour before the forty excited citizens had passed their coin through the cashier's window.

SOME DELAY IS PERMISSABLE

So Thinks Judge Beck in Referring to Building Contracts and Such Things.

CRISTAL CASE IN COURT

Owner of Cristal Building, First Street Sues Edmonton Iron Works.

ONE DELAY MADE MORE

And Now Building Wont Be Ready on Time and Mr. Cristal Loses Money.

Can Abraham Cristal hold the Edmonton Iron Works responsible for damages arising from the delay in delivering the steel work for the new Cristal building on First street, is the hanging round without anything to do in the case of Edmonton Iron Works vs. Cristal. The building has been leased as a hotel and according to Cristal's evidence he will have sustained a total loss of $8000 for five months' rent for the hotel and other damages.

"I think that some delay in the fulfilling of a contract is permissible," said Judge Beck, during the hearing of the case. The foreman in charge of the building, Mr. Hughes, was put in the box at the beginning of the session and in answer to a question said that the progress of the building in his opinion had not been satisfactory.

"A man," he said, "who is put in charge of a building is supposed to make a success of it, both for himself and his employer, and when he is hanging round without anything to do he is only an annoyance to himself and everyone else."

"How many bricklayers were you using during the early part?" asked Mr. Bolton.

"Sometimes two, sometimes three or four."

"And how many could you have used if the steel been ready on the 15th of March?"

"Perhaps thirty or forty."

"What was the effect of the steel not being delivered?"

"It delayed the building."

"Early in the season," said Mr. Hughes, the bricklayers and plasterers were easy to get."

"Why," he said, "you could see them hanging round the corners on Jasper Avenue. Later on it was almost impossible to get them."

DIETZ REFUSES PEACE OFFERS

Outlaw of Cameron Dam Turns Down Second Envoy of Peace; Two Alternatives.

HE SEES NEWSPAPERMEN

Received Reporters in Kindly Fashion and Gave Them a Venison Dinner.

THE STORY OF STRUGGLE

Outlaw Tells Why He Opposes Law—Is Well Educated and Smarter than Sheriffs.

A Winter, Wis., Oct. 7.—Dietz, the outlaw of Cameron dam, yesterday rejected the second envoy of peace, composed of Frank Gilbert, attorney-general of Wisconsin and Col. O. G. Munson, private secretary of the governor. Dietz alternatives are two, capture, which means prison bars for himself, his wife and his son Leslie, and probably orphanage for his two younger children, or death for himself and probably for his wife and three children.

The Outlawer chieftain, in spite of his record of having for eight years successfully defied the police forces of Sawyer county, the state of Wisconsin, and the federal courts, received reporters in a kindly hospitable manner today and fed them with venison shot on his own farm.

For years public sentiment has been against Dietz, but the shooting of his daughter seems to have turned the current to a great extent in his favor, and the town as a result is a dynamic magazine of conflicting passions.

Years ago the lumber company built a dam across the river below the Dietz farm, with the result that much of his land was flooded. Failing to obtain redress through the courts, Dietz blew up the dam, allowing a big bunch of logs to go adrift. Under armed protection the company rebuilt the dam several times, but so often Dietz blew it up.

Being a dead shot, and having the sympathy of the countryside, Dietz defied all process servers and tattered warrants for his arrest.

The first glimpse of the Dietz home-made makes it evident why the sheriff and his posse should prefer to wait until winter for the outlaw to approach, rather than go out and get him. The cottage is on a hillside, striped bare of trees for several hundred yards in

HOW OTHER Y'S HAVE RAISED THE FUNDS

In view of the intention of the Young Men's Christian association to inaugurate in the course of the next two weeks a short term campaign for the raising of $36,000 to wipe off the debt on the building and to make much-needed alterations and extensions to the plunge and shower baths, it will be interesting to note what other cities have done along this line. In nearly all the instances cited the special effort was limited to fifteen days, in some to ten. The length of the Edmonton campaign has been fixed at six days.

In January last Buffalo, N.Y., conducted a campaign to pay off debts amounting to $275,000. The sum of $290,000 was raised. This was the second of such campaigns in that city. A conditional pledge of $75,000 was given as a starter. Lowell, Mass., a city of less than 200,000 people, raised $73,000 in ten days. Detroit raised $75,000 for buildings, of which $400,000 was given in subscriptions. Boston gave $25,000 in fifteen days. Ottawa in the same period raised $250,000. In nearly all the cities in Canada to enter this movement, Halifax obtained $130,000 in two weeks. Montreal raised $325,000 in a ten days' campaign. In the Toronto campaign $800,000 was raised in a whirlwind campaign, the amount aimed at being only $600,000.

The King
WrestlingJOE LALLY, THE LACROSSE
PIONEER IS IN EDMONTON

Is Making Trip Through the West to Interest Amateurs in National Game

Lacrosse, the Canadian National game is due for a boom in Edmonton, as Joe Lally of Cornwall, well known player and referee is at the King Edward.

Mr. Lally's mission is a pioneer one and he is striving to boom lacrosse among the public schools, recognizing the fact that the game must be taught to the young boys in order that they grow right up with it.

Seen by the Capital, Mr. Lally said: "The reason why I am West is to get the amateur players interested, to develop amateur players, and in time we will have the game on its feet again. The Mann Cup represents the amateur lacrosse championship of the world and is an honor well worth trying for. Organizations are being formed all over the West, of a purely amateur nature, and in the course of a few years the competition for the Mann cup should be exceedingly keen. But amateurism is the keynote of the revival, and we wish no hidden professionalism to creep in."

In order that the organizing and equipping of the school leagues may be made easy, Mr. Lally, who is the largest manufacturer of lacrosse sticks in the world, proposes to supply those very necessary requisites at a very low figure. Arrangements will be made with the local hardware merchants to have the Lally stick, at a low figure. Mr. Lally intends to organize a juvenile league here, and hopes to get everything ready to commence the schedule next summer.

Everywhere that Mr. Lally has visited in the West, the idea has been most enthusiastically received. Barney Collier and Dan McLeod of Calgary, are at the head of the movement in that city, while the coast cities, Vancouver and New Westminster are taking to the idea, like a duck to water. Indeed, Vancouver had the honor of being the first western city to make a trip East after the Mann cup.

The Mann cup for professionals had caused a lack of interest in the amateur game, so the question arose of organizing an Amateur Lacrosse association, with branches in the different provinces. At present there are only two leagues of such a nature, the C. L. A. and the B. C. L. A.

When asked about the Mann cup games, Mr. Lally said that the cup would stay on the Coast for a long time. The Royals are a wonderful combination, and at present there is nothing in the East that can touch them. However, Tecumseh, with the inclusion of Len, McDougall, of Regina, will be important factors in the N. L. U. race next season, and would be hard opponents for the Royals, as both teams play the same class of game.

"Newey Lalonde certainly did make good this year," said Mr. Lally. "I think the former Cornwall player is without a doubt the best inside home man and lacrosse general in the game today."

Mr. Lally will be in Edmonton for a few more days and hopes before leaving, to get the juvenile lacrosse movement well started in this city.

SKEELS SENT HOME.

Regina, Oct. 7.—A post card received yesterday from Frank Gurney, the Regina third baseman, who is now at his home in Detroit, conveys the information that Dave Skeels has been sent home for the balance of the season by the Tigers. He will, in all probability, be taken on the spring training trip, given an opportunity to make good.

ALL STAR TEAM
TO PLAY CHAMPS

Con. Jones Selects Team from Vancouver and Nationals to Meet Vancouver

Vancouver, Oct. 7.—How does this look like an all-star combination to pit against the world's champion New Westminster lacrosse team?
Goal—Clarke, Vancouver.
Point—Griffith, Vancouver.
Coverpoint—Howard, Vancouver.
First defence—Clement, Vancouver.
Second defence—Pickering, Vancouver.

Third defence—Goldfrey, Vancouver.
Center—West, Vancouver.
Third home—Hennessey, Vancouver.
Second home—Gauthier, National.
First home—Lalonde, National.
Outside home—Laviolette, National.

Inside home—Allen, Vancouver.
Seems to be a pretty shifty combination, strong in defence and dangerous in offence, doesn't it?

Well, that is the team which President Con Jones, of the Vancouver lacrosse team will play against the Salmonbellies as the star feature of next Saturday's programme at the New Westminster fair.

Con Jones Selects All-Stars.

The fair management left the selection of the "all-stars" to Mr. Jones, and the latter announced his choice today. The form shown by the National players in the cup games, and in the game here guided him in his selection. He had intended at first to name the Vancouver defence and the National home, but this was out of the question. A vacancy was caused in the Vancouver defence by the retirement of Bob Springer, who has hung up his stick for keeps, and Muffy Clement, the scrappy defence leader of the Nationals has been selected to replace him. The Vancouver home is shot to pieces at this time, and anyway there was room there for Gauthier, Lalonde and Laviolette.

ANNA FAY PICKS PHILADELPHIA.

Fans who are trying to dope out the result of the forthcoming world's championship series between the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago Cubs were given a tip by Mrs. Eva Fay, the mind reader, at Pittsburgh the other day. While Mrs. Fay stood upon the stage blindfolded she called out the name J. L. Kelly, and the respondent wanted to know who was going to win the world's championship.

"I see Philadelphia—yes, surely Philadelphia will defeat Chicago," Somebody else asked whether Yale or Harvard would win the big forthcoming football game this season, to which she replied:

"Yale. I see nothing but Yale—Yale, eight to nothing."

BETTING ON BASEBALL IS BECOMING A BUSINESS

Years Ago the Game Was Nearly Killed by the Prevalence of the Custom

(By Manhattan.)
New York, Oct. 3.—Bets are being openly made on the result of the coming world's baseball series. Money has been freely placed in some hotels here and it is said some hand-book men whose sporting blood formerly found vent in small or big plunges on the horses are said to find wagers on baseball contests.

There are many lovers of the national game who regret this. There is a fear that the custom, if not checked, may spread and become a business. Years ago the professional game was almost killed by the prevalence of betting on the results of individual games and series. Some players were seized with the fever and then followed the throwing of games by players, some times to win their own bets and at other times to bolster up the betting schemes of men who paid them for crooked work.

It is recalled that betting and the throwing of games became so much of a scandal that the organization then controlling baseball found it necessary to expel four noted players and to declare them "forever black-listed from the game." A few days ago while at a game between the Brooklyn and Cincinnati teams an old man was pointed out to me as being one of the black-listed, for he was sitting all alone on the benches. Years ago he would have gotten an ovation had he appeared on a ball ground.

Men who brought this matter to my attention have expressed the hope that every lover of baseball will from upon, discourage and expose every attempt to revive betting on the national game.

Minor leagues have already begun an agitation with a view of securing the privilege of Sunday ball playing. They will probably find it a difficult task, as the Protestant churches and 97 per cent. of the Catholic churches are opposed to sports of any kind on Sunday.

The owners of a majority of the New York state league teams claim financial losses for the season, due they say, to the fact that Sunday baseball was prohibited the greater part of the latter end of the season. It is understood that John H. Farrell, president of the league, will call a meeting of the managers for the purpose of taking action on the Sunday baseball question and reducing the salary limit, which is now $3,300.

"I approve of Sunday baseball," said City Magistrate Frederick B. House a few days ago, "for it keeps the crowds away from the saloons."

Magistrate House's remarks were occasioned by the arraignment of a youth for selling baseball score cards on Sunday.

"As I believe your contention that you did not know you were violating the law I will discharge you with a reprimand."

NATIONALS AGAIN BEATEN.
Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 7.—By the same score, seven to four, by which Vancouver defeated the Nationals on Tuesday, the local team trimmed the unfortunate easterners again yesterday. This is their fifth defeat in five games, three with the champions and two with Vancouver. The last game before the Nationals go east will be played on Saturday at New Westminster, their second exhibition match with the champions.

Today's game was fairly fast and decidedly clean, there being only one penalty. It looked something like an even contest up to the close of the third quarter, when the score looked even, closer, four to four.

Then following the tactics of the champions Vancouver made 3 goals in spectacular fashion while they kept the Frenchmen from getting another goal. The score by quarters is: Vancouver, 1, 3, 0, 3; total 7. Nationals 2, 1, 0; total 4.

DIETZ REFUSES

all directions. The hill is a sort of peninsula swept on three sides by a curve in the Thompson river, which is kept deep at this point by the famous Cameron dam, over which the bloody eight year feud arose.

The home is thus a natural fortress and is approached by a winding wagon track through woods which are still overgrown with deer. Every foot of the forest for miles around is known to Dietz and his family, but to few other people.

There natural surroundings indicate in part why Dietz has been able so long to defy the law and throw in a state of terror a village many miles away, guarded by thirty-eight deputy sheriffs.

But another and more potent reason is that Dietz is not only clever but smarter than those he is fighting. His greatest trouble arose over a school question. He has the only children in his school district, but he insists on having a public school and a teacher for them. In his house is to be found the only typewriter in long distance. On it his daughter Myra has written fiction which has been printed and paid for. There are many books in the home, good solid reading, and Dietz has clear, concise ideas as to his exact rights in every transaction in which he has smashed into the law.

Has Some Legal Talent.

He has no lawyer and says he has no money to hire one, but he can talk off a legal brief in defence of his acts that would make any court pay respectful attention. But hitherto he has been on the defensive. Now his daughter has been shot and he threatens to take the aggressive. Hence the armed deputies at Winter. That he has always been on the defensive is his main defense to all the accusations against him.

"No officer has ever stepped up to me, laid his hand on my shoulder and said, 'I want you,'" Dietz declared today. "I went to Winter every Saturday and Sunday for years while they had those warrants, but no one ever said a word to me."

"In the original trouble over the dam, I simply stood on my own land and sent trespassers off."

"When the shooting on which the warrants were issued occurred we acted solely in defense. A band of armed men whom we did not know crept upon the clearing and opened fire from the woods. We replied. That was all."

"No real attempt was made to serve those warrants, for they knew they were in the wrong. Now they have served two of them by shooting at my mother and myself and now while he was holding her senseless body."

"The two boys had guns; they always have. They wore them on belts in plain sight, but they were ordered by their mother and myself not to use them except in self defense."

"They had made no attempt to drop them when fired upon, and after the first shot Clarence was too busy taking care of Myra to do anything, while Leslie dropped his gun in jumping from the wagon."

"Although Leslie was unarmed and fleeing, those grim men pursued him for miles shooting at him."

"That is not service of a warrant, shooting children from behind, but it is about as close to service as any of them have ever come."

Dietz visited last night the scene where his children were ambushed, and it was reported in town late tonight that he was near the same spot early this evening.

SOME DELAY IS

"You tried to get more bricks—"

"Yes! But I couldn't get them." "You have been on some big contracts in Edmonton, have you not?" asked Mr. Woods.

"Yes."

"And isn't it true that they are mostly late. Did you ever see a building that was put up in time."

"Oh! yes, sometimes."

"But as a general rule in your experience, they are late?"

"Yes, I suppose as a general rule, they are. They were delayed on the King Edward last year for two months, waiting for steel."

The steel work used in the building was the cause of all the trouble. It was purchased by Cristal from the Edmonton Ironworks to the amount of $24,000 and a contract drawn up for a certain amount of steel to be delivered on or before the 15th of March. The excavation and the foundation had already been completed and work was to begin as soon as spring opened. The steel was not delivered on the fifteenth and the final delivery was not made till June 13th, 1910. The work was delayed at the start some three months and the postponement of the work till fall, means enhanced prices for labor and other essentials so that a total claim for $8,000 is put in.

VISITING HIS OLD HOME

Mr. H. Bingham of Vancouver, formerly of the Quick Exchange Realty Co. of Edmonton, is in the city on a business trip. Mr. Bingham is enthusiastic over Vancouver and the Coast country, where the growth is tremendous.

"Do you know what contributes most to Vancouver's prosperity?" The reporter was dumb, though he had many notions of trans-Pacific trade, Fort George and other contributory causes frequently alluded to. "It's the farmers from the Prairie Provinces."

"Many of them retire and go to live in Vancouver or the coast towns, while others, after harvesting and selling their crops, pack up and go to British Columbia for the winter." Consequently there is a tremendous amount of money in Vancouver at present. Real estate prices are very high, $3,000 to $4,000 per foot is the rule on the main streets. One friend bought property for $500 a while ago and in a year's time sold it for $35,000. Regarding Edmonton Mr. Bingham expressed the opinion that publicity was not carried far enough. "Beyond your local papers real estate men do not advertise extensively. There isn't enough boost—not nearly as much as the country justifies."

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

The Central Alberta Medical Association held its regular meeting last night instead of on Wednesday, it having been postponed on account of the Melba concert. A number of highly interesting papers, which were followed by thorough discussions, were read. "The Effect of Early Operations on Prognosis" was the subject of a paper read by Dr. Allin, while Dr. Biggar read one on "The Medical Investigation of School Children." Dr. Biggar has recently completed an inspection of the school children of Edmonton for the Edmonton school board, but his report has not yet been made public, but it is expected that it will be read at the meeting of the board on October 22nd. Dr. Wells presided at the meeting yesterday, while Dr. Archibald Watson, of Wainwright was invited to membership.

MEN'S MASS MEETING.

Heretofore helpful meetings for men have been held at different places in the city on Sunday afternoons. It has been deemed advisable to combine in this movement, and to hold a live mass meeting each Sunday afternoon at 4:15 in some central church. These meetings will be addressed by the ablest speakers obtainable; live topics will be discussed and good music provided. All men are urged to attend the opening mass meeting to be held in the First Presbyterian church, corner Third and Jasper, on Sunday afternoon, October 9th. Dr. H. M. Tory, President of the University of Alberta, will deliver an address on "The Religion of Experience."

Oberammergau Gets $437,500 for Seat Sales Alone for Season.

Berlin, Oct. 7.—The Passion Play at Oberammergau, which has finished the greatest season in its history, has produced roundly $437,500 revenue from the sale of seats alone. These receipts represent about 150,000 visitors, by far the largest percentage of whom were from the United States. The English and French came next. Germans were conspicuously in the minority. They do not take the Oberammergauers seriously and say that the Passion Play is a money-making enterprise principally supported by trans-Atlantic globe trotters.

CHILDREN'S AID SOCIETY

The regular monthly meeting of the Children's Aid Society of Edmonton and Strathcona was held Wednesday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. During the month of September six children were sent to foster homes and seven returned to their parents. The agent of the society, Sergt. Webb has been called at the instance of the Chief of Police and the Superintendent of Neglected Children to investigate 65 cases of neglected and delinquent children of School Children." Dr. Biggar has recently completed an inspection of the school children of Edmonton for the Edmonton school board, but his report has not yet been made public, but it is expected that it will be read at the meeting of the board on October 22nd. Dr. Wells presided at the meeting yesterday, while Dr. Archibald Watson, of Wainwright was invited to membership.

FAREWELL TO REV. MR. DOWLING.

At a meeting of the Young People's Guild of First Presbyterian church yesterday evening farewells were exchanged between Rev. Mr. Dowling, who has been acting in the capacity of assistant and the church members. The meeting which began at eight o'clock was a social one, consisting of musical numbers and speeches. Miss Edith Webster gave a violin selection; Miss Edith Webster a solo; a reading by Miss Howe was very much enjoyed by the audience; Mr. McGregor also sang; Rev. Mr. Dowling took advantage of the opportunity to say goodbye to those with whom he has been associated for some months and Dr. McQueen in replying, conveyed the good wishes of himself and the church. NICKEL SLOTS FOR FOOD

New York Pastor Tells of Grocery Plan for Poor.
Cincinnati, O., Oct. 7.—The Rev. R. E. Robinson of New York City came to Cincinnati tonight to attend the meetings of the Episcopal church convention. He says that he has recently joined in a movement to aid the poor, and that it is to consist of automatic restaurants and grocery stores in the tenement districts. He says the mechanism has been invented and patented. For 5 cents or any amount over that, the purchaser may receive his money's worth of goods at either the restaurant or the grocery store. He says that millions of dollars will be invested in the plan.

Fruit Fed Horses.

In Tasmania peaches are greatly related by horses.
Dates take the place of the usual hay, corn, oats and bran in Arabia. In the West Indies the green tops of the sugar cane are fed to the horses. For long weeks in many parts of Canada windfall apples form the horses' only food.
Pigs during the big harvest form the food of the horses of Smyrna. They turn them to this from oats or hay.
In Egypt the khudra's best mares are fed largely on currants, and these fruit fed animals are noted for their endurance and speed.

Recent Inventions.

An Osborn has patented a device to turn automobile lamps with the wheels to illuminate the road in rounding corners.
A medicine chest so operated by clockwork that only the right bottle may be removed at a set time is the invention of an Arkansian.
Two California men have patented an electric station with an automatic cutoff, so that the current is used only when the iron is in actual operation.

Facts From France.

In Nantes, France, a city of some 100,000 population, there is not a single modern steam laundry. The washing is done on boats.
France has lately been importing in heavy quantities foodstuffs and manufactured goods, but has been buying sparingly of unfinished staples.

Tales of Cities.

In Honan city, distant only two days by rail from Peking, lump silver, the same cumbersome currency that has been used for centuries, is still employed.
Spokane has put a coating of oil on ten miles of streets and is congratulating itself on the prospect of freedom from dust and the increased attractiveness of the city as a place to homes.
No business whatever can now be done on Sundays in the Mexican city of Mazatlan. Heretofore all places of business have been open from 8 till 12 on Sundays, allowing only one-half holiday to employees in the whole week.

Cheerful Blunders.

Liverpool children are credited with the following cheerful blunders in examinations:
The horse is as tall as a middle aged man.
The pig has been the goose that lays the golden eggs to many people.
Many Americans would not be millionaires without the falsely blamed pig.
The pig is a native of China, and it can go into houses and sit down like a Christian.
The horse consists of fetlocks, joints, hank, upper arm and hock. Without these the graceful animal could not live.

Music Epigrams.

Music fills the present moment decisively than anything else.—Goethe.
No art is more closely connected with the inner life of man than music.—Dr. F. L. Ritter.
Music is the art of the prophets, the only art which can calm the agitations of the soul.—Luther.
Music in the works of its greatest masters is more marvelous, more mysterious, than poetry.—H. Giles.
Music is the only one of the fine arts in which not only man, but all other animals, have a common property.—Jean Paul Richter.

The Age of Forty.

Forty is the age at which a man is supposed to be in his prime.
Forty is old to a man of thirty and young to a man of fifty.
At forty some men quit sowing wild oats and others begin.
Forty is an imaginary line between youth and old age.
Some men are forty at twenty and some at sixty.
At forty a man is supposed to have reached years of discretion, and generally he has unless some woman yells it otherwise.—Chicago Record-Herald.

WHY HE DOES NOT CARE FOR A QUEUE

Washington, D.C., Oct. 7.—Mentioning the throne at Peking in favor of abolishing the queue. Yu Ting Fang, the former minister to Washington, who kept Americans busy answering his questions while he was at this post, has explained how he happened to take that attitude.

In his memorial, the text of which has just reached Washington, Mr. Wu says Chinese residents in North, Central and South America have been mocked and teased by foreigners until they have implored him to seek an imperial edict giving official sanction to cropping the hair and changing their costume to accord with western ideas.

TINY FLAME LURES|| BIG BUG FROM EAR

If You Get a Bug in Your Ear, Don't Call a Doctor—Use a Box of Matches.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 7.—Those long, shiny instruments that doctors poke into your ear when a little bug makes a mistake and gets into it, aren't necessary to show the bug the error of its way. All you need is a box of matches.

John Saunders of Colwyn, made this discovery. Yesterday a bug crawled into his ear. After surgeons had endeavored to extract the bug a friend struck a match and held it close to the ear to get a better view. The pain stopped. When the flame went out the pain began again.

"Light another match," begged Saunders. The friend did, and a dozen after that. Presently the bug, responding to the light, emerged and was killed.

The Human Body.
The human body is an epitome in nature of all mechanics, all hydraulics, all architecture, all machinery of every kind. There are more than 310 mechanical movements known to mechanics today, and all these are but modifications of those found in the human body.

Flax.
Flax has been used from remote ages as a textile fabric, especially in Egypt. Mummy cloths are often found to be of exceedingly fine texture.

Flathbone Implements.
In India the jawbone of the boar is employed by the natives about Dacca. The teeth, being small, recurved and closely set, act as a fine comb for combing cotton, in removing the bone and coarse fibres and all extraneous matter from the cotton wool.

Supreme Range

Will cut your fuel bill in two. If you burn coal or wood you save 50 per cent in using a Supreme Range.

The Great Feature

Is a patent device known as the Secondary Combustion Tube that is the fuel saver. By this combination the unconsumed gases are ignited and carried down under the oven, up the back of the oven and across the top of it to the smoke pipe, thereby making a complete circulation. The Supreme Range is a good baker, makes bread a pleasure and satisfaction. We sell this range on 30 days trial and if it does not bake well and save fuel we will take it back, all at our expense.
